ANDAO TEA INTRODUCES NEW PUERH TEAS AND PUERH BISCUITS PERFECT GIFTS FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON
Andao brings ancient Chinese tea culture to the United States

Long Island, NY (October 23, 2008) – Andao Tea introduces two new “perfect for the holiday” gifts made with traditional garden varietal Puerh Tea blended and created by Zhou Yun Chuan, the creator of the exclusive 12 Gentleman brand.

The Mini Chinese Tea Book gift set includes four unique types of Puerh Tea packaged in silver canisters and placed inside an embellished tea box with Lu Yu’s book, “The Classic of Tea.”

The perfect companion to the tea gift set is the Puerh Tea Biscuits gift box. Packaged in a unique chocolate style gift box, the 30 mini-cooked Puerh Tea biscuits come individually wrapped and full of flavor.

Like fine wine, Puerh tea is unique based on production year, seasonality, leaf origin, blend quality and production skill. With Zhou Yun Chuan’s expertise and Chinese notoriety, these gifts are high-quality and flavorful, expanding the reach of the ancient Chinese tea culture to the United States.

Puerh tea – also known as “diet tea” – can kick start New Years Resolutions for those who receive it. The tea is well-known for its outstanding health benefits. Additionally, Zhou Yun Chuan’s blend of cooked Puerh tea, which he initially launched with 12 Gentleman, was selected by the Chinese Tea Museum as one of China’s top ten most famous teas.

Andao Tea has partnered with Zhou Yun Chuan’s second company, He Run Tian Ziang to bring these Puerh Tea gifts to the United States – along with the ancient tea culture and amazing flavors of China through high-quality, certified organic loose leaf teas.

Both gifts are available directly to wholesale customers through Andao’s web site at www.andaotea.com along with OEM/Private Label branding.

For Media Samples of any of the Gift Sets, or a high-resolution photo of the products please contact Lahne Mattas-Curry at 646.942.4255 or email media@andaotea.com. Please include media outlet in your email along with contact information.
